The Mulatto Convention.

We glean from our Northern exchanges the following items relative to the Black Convention now in session in Philadelphia. The latest intelligence from the concern will be found under our telegraphic head:

THE UNION LEAGUE SUPPLYING DELEGATES.

When all the delegations from the South had been registered at headquarters this morning, it was found to be so meagre a list that the managers at the League House resolved to distribute the badges they had supplied for the several States among Philadelphians, and tack them on to the delegations. It would scarcely have done to march the delegates through the streets with South Carolina and North Carolina each represented by two whites marching arm in arm, and other States in proportion. The parades to the quarters of the delegates were therefore made in the following form:—

Band and banners ahead.
Philadelphians labelled "Boys in Blue."
Philadelphians labelled "Delaware."
Philadelphians labelled "Virginia."
Philadelphians labelled "North Carolina."

And so on through the list. This, however, was for outside show alone, the list sent comprising all the actual delegates, real and bogus, who have claimed seats.

WHY THE NORTHERN DELEGATES ARE TO BE LEFT OUT.

This has been resolved upon because the South insists upon demanding negro suffrage, and the northern politicians are afraid to commit themselves to that policy so unequivocally. This spoils Fred. Douglass's chances for the presidency of the convention.

HONORS TO DOUGLASS.

Douglass has not, however, been without his honors. He was called out at several stations on the route, and was received enthusiastically when he arrived here. Butler and Sumner were in his company.

A PROSPECTIVE MARTYR.

A North Carolina delegate alleges that he has received a threatening letter from his home, stating that if he returns there he will be treated to a bullet.

THE CONVENTION A FIZZLE.

The Convention, it is admitted, will be a fizzle. There are only a handful of pretended Southerners here, representing no person but themselves. Not a single delegate has any constituency at all behind him unless he succeeds in enfranchising the negroes. The meeting is therefore to be turned into a collection of stump speeches, to be delivered to Philadelphia roughs and admiring darkies from different points in the city wherever a crowd can be raised.

Fred. Douglas would easily get the vote of the Southern whites for President, but for the fact that the Northern delegates are to take no part in the Convention.

THIS PICTURE AND THAT.

The contrast between the convention held here in August and the present black and white gathering is marked and striking. That convention was composed of representative men of the South, and comprised some of the ablest men of the nation. They came earnestly seeking to support the Executive arm of the government—to secure the fruits of a successful war in a lasting peace—and to restore brotherly love and goodwill among the people of a common nativity. This amalgamation, copper colored gathering is made up of Southern white trash, without character or means, and representing only negroes, and of Northern fanatics and agitators. They come together raving and ranting—cursing their fellow countrymen—and plotting to bring upon us a bloody and cruel war of races, with its adjuncts of burning and bloodshed.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER.

During the progress of the procession Theodore Tilton and Frederick walked arm-in-arm in brotherly and tender affection. The Press construes this into a sarcasm upon the delegations from South Carolina and Massachusetts entering the National Union Convention arm-in arm.

Strange to say there seems to be no prospect of close affiliation between the Southern and the Northern representatives. The latter gentlemen, after a prayer meeting, concluded to meet in separate convention, over which Governor Curtin presides. Why this is so the majority don't understand; but the fact that the mean whites of the South go in strong for negro suffrage in order to get the darkies to vote their ticket, while the mean whites of the North are afraid to go so far, for fear of influencing the coming elections against them, may have something to do with it.

It is generally conceded to-night that the Southern Convention will resolve that negro suffrage is an absolute necessity, and must be insisted upon. As a preliminary they will admit the black representatives from Tennessee. Minor Botts opposes this. He urges that if the negroes are allowed to vote, their late masters will do just as they please with them.

One Furness from this State is one of the Committee on Credentials, and Marshall Goodloe one of the Committee on Resolutions.

IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet. Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.
Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 3-3tawtf

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Pachaun, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 6, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

The Radical Convention Here.

The Radical organ in this City is wholly mistaken, if it supposes that we are disgruntled, or the least uneasy, at the proposition to hold a Radical Convention in this City, on the 20th. inst. If there are Radicals in the State, even 500 or 5000, or more, we want them to show their hand. We have been fighting the real traitors to the Union and to President Johnson long enough in the dark. We want them to hang their banners out, that they may be known. If they have any principles, we challenge them to put them upon the record. We shall hold them to the defence and support of the Radical Constitutional Amendment, whatever may be their alleged platform. They are committed to that issue fully, by their organ and by the meetings which have been held in several counties. Remember, the true issue between the Johnson-Worth men and the Radicals, alias the Holdenites, alias the "red strings," alias the "strait sect" men, is the rejection or adoption of the Howard Constitutional amendment by the next Legislature. The Johnson-Worth men are out and out against it; the Holdenites are for it.

Now in order to bring this test fully before the people, we are anxious that the Radical-Holdenite Convention should meet here on the 20th. inst. We are anxious they should bring out the strongest Radical-Holdenite they have for Governor, and we are further anxious that, in every County where they have a corporal's guard they should run candidates for the Legislature on the Radical platform.

For some weeks we have really been uneasy that the Worth men were so sure of success, they would, from sheer sleepiness, let the Rads. get the whip hand of them in some of the Counties. We hope this movement will make them bestir themselves. Bring out your best men, ablest men, friends, and do it speedily. We need an able Legislature and a thoroughly loyal one to the Union and to the Constitution.

"Gov. Worth has been in office eight months. It was promised by his friends, when he was elected, that under his auspices the Union would be restored, though many of our people thought it was "Holden and go back to the Union, and Worth and stay out."

True it is, the Governor and his friends have managed to keep us out for the space of eight months; and the signs now are that we are further from being restored than ever."—Standard.

The assertion is utterly without foundation, in point of fact, that it was promised by Gov. Worth's friends, when he was elected, that under his auspices the Union would soon be restored. He was not elected upon any such grounds, but simply because the people of the State had more confidence in his political honesty, charity, and consistent Unionism, and a higher opinion of his ability and efficiency, than they had of Mr. Holden's. It was, however, supposed, and justly so, that our chances for "getting back" would be much better, under such a man as Gov. Worth, and in pursuance of the President's policy, than "under the auspices" of one who was virtually perverting that policy, and who has since openly deserted it. We admit, that, according to the Radical programme, our road to nominal representation in Congress might have been shortened by the election of Mr. Holden. We might have had just such a state of things as has been brought about in Tennessee "under the auspices" of Brownlow: a disfranchised and persecuted people, a bogus Legislature, and a fraudulent adoption of the Howard amendment. But such restoration the truly loyal people of the State spurn and will have nothing to do with, so far as depends upon their voluntary action. Such a restoration, under the beneficent administrations of President Johnson and Governor Worth, we take pleasure in believing that we are "further off from than ever."

"Unmistakably Loyal Men."

The Standard announces Col. J. S. Harrington as a candidate for the House of Commons from Harnett, and endorses him as an "unmistakably loyal man." Now we understand that expression, hereabouts, when used by the Standard, to mean an undoubted Holden man. Does Col. Harrington acknowledge his fealty to the Holden faction? Does he belong to the North Carolina Radical party? If so, he must tell the people of Harnett so, out and out. We know the Colonel, and we do not believe that he belongs to that school; but it is well enough to ascertain the fact.

The Standard, the other day, announced Dr. Henry as a candidate in Bertie, and gave him a similar endorsement. If we have not been incorrectly informed, Dr. Henry will spurn the endorsement of the Standard; but it will be well for the people of Bertie to put the Doctor to the test. Let the test of loyalty be, not what Mr. Holden says, but whether one supports President Johnson and his policy, unmistakably, or the Radical platform.

MR. HOLDEN wants to know what Gov. Worth has done for the State. The people will answer that question, on the 18th. of October, by giving him 40,000 majority over any strait-sect Holdenite that can be "scared up" from the Radical jungle.

CRAVEN.—A meeting of the Conservatives of Craven will be held on Tuesday next. Keep the ball moving.

The Case of Major Jno. H. Gee.

We have had before us, for some days, but have inadvertently omitted to notice, the official publication of the proceedings and findings in the case of Maj. Jno. H. Gee. The Major was acquitted on all the charges and specifications.

In approving the findings, &c., Maj. Gen. Robinson takes occasion to say:

"While the evidence clearly establishes the fact that the higher authorities of the rebel government were fully responible for the violations of the laws and customs of war, and the accused was constantly calling their attention to the condition of the prison, and asking for supplies, it is believed that he had it in his power to relieve much of the sufferings of the prisoners under his charge. Not only were prisoners starved but suffered for want of water and fuel, which they might have procured themselves, because it was feared they might escape. Prisoners were shot down in cold blood, and the perpetrators of these murders were allowed to go unpunished. There seems to have been more anxiety to prevent the escape of prisoners of war than to preserve their lives."

When it is considered that, according to the official reports from the War Department, notwithstanding our relative disadvantage, one Confederate prisoner died out of every eight in Federal hands, while one Federal prisoner died out of every twelve in our hands, ordinary propriety would suggest that it is time to discontinue these one-sided investigations and partizan accusations.

The President's Tour.

The popular enthusiasm attending the President's progress continues.

The tremendous ovations which greet him at every point attest the estimation in which he is held by the people, and show the drift of the popular current. It is a glorious sign in the political heavens, and points unmistakably to an early adjustment of our national difficulties.

He is pressing his peculiar views with great power upon the people, and he mercilessly dissects the Radical policy on all occasions. He makes the restoration of the Union, and the re-establishment of harmony and good feeling, the theme of all his speeches. The Jacobins are crying under these inflictions, and well they may, for he demolishes a host of foes at every blow, and before he gets back to Washington he will have torn such chasms in their ranks as will place them beyond repair. He is carrying the war which the Radicals forced upon him into their own camp, and he will show them that they have a lion in their path. They have ridiculed and assailed "my policy," but it has been taken up by the people, and under his fearless lead it will be carried to a successful conclusion.

THE EXCUSE given for the discourtesy of McMichael, the Radical Mayor of Philadelphia, to the President and party, is that "he was out of town," at the time of their visit. He purposely left to avoid paying respect to the Chief Magistrate. This Jno. Gilpin is receiving attention on all hands. The following improvements on certain well-known nursery rhymes are from the Age:

I.

Mort., Mort., McMichael's son,
Saw "A. J.," and away he run;
The feast was eat, and the Rads. were beat—
Mort., Mort., McMichael's son.

II.

Hey, diddle, daddle,
The Mayor did skedaddle,
When Andrew J. came to the fair;
The people all laughed,
To see the rich sport,
As the Councils ran after the Mayor.

III.

Hush-a-bye, Morton!
A. Johnson was here,
When he and Grant come again,
Don't vamose with fear.
When the wind blows,
In October this Fall,
Down will come Morton,
And Radicals all!

THE AUTHOR.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1, 1866.

"Brother Pell should not make such flings at Brother Brownlow. They are both ministers of the Gospel, and members of the same Church. Brother Pell should only say, "oh fie, fie, Brother Brownlow!"—Standard.

This is a mi-take. Mr. Brownlow and Bro. Pell do not belong to the same Church. Mr. Brownlow and Mr. Holden used to belong to Bro. Pell's Church, but neither do now; and it was a happy riddance when we got clear of them. One thing can be said of Brownlow, which cannot be said of Holden. Brownlow has no concealment—no shuffling—no covert designs. Bad as he is, he is an open enemy.—He does not pretend to be for President Johnson, when he despises and opposes him.

THE RADICAL organ in this City asserts that Gov. Worth has little or no influence at Washington City; that he receives official courtesy and nothing more. Well, this is simply all that Gov. Worth expects or claims,—official courtesy. As the Executive of the State, his dealings and intercourse with the government are purely official. He has too much respect for the dignity of his position to seek to exercise any other than "official" influence. That influence, however, has been sufficient to procure the pardons of hundreds which the Ex-P. G. was impotent to obtain, and of scores of others which that defunct dignitary (D. D.) recommended for rejection.

"By their fruits ye shall know them."

POWERS OF THE CONVENTION.—Such is the importance of the subject, that we shall devote most of our space, to-morrow, to a very lengthy article from the pen of B. F. Moore, Esq., of this city, on the powers of the late Convention. We shall express no opinion on his argument, until we have carefully considered it.

THE RADICAL journals speak of the so-called "Southern" sneaks at Philadelphia as "tried" men. One of them, at least,—Chaplain Glavis, who has the impudence to hail from North Carolina,—has been not only "tried," but convicted, also. All the rest have been "tried" in the balance and "found wanting."

The Radicals moving in North Carolina.

We see in the Standard of yesterday a report of the proceedings of a political meeting recently held in Guilford, in which the announcement is distinctly made that the participants are distinctly opposed to President Johnson's policy, and favor the Howard amendment.—These proceedings are published without one word of comment.

There has also been a meeting in the city of Newbern, to send delegates to a Convention to be held in the city of Raleigh, to bring out an "unmistakably loyal man" as a candidate for Governor. The political waters are troubled, and it takes no seer to foreshadow the complexion of the approaching canvass. While the great body of the people of the South, and we believe a majority of the conservative and constitution-loving people of the North, are ranging themselves on the side of our noble President, we are, in North Carolina, about to witness the disgraceful spectacle of having the harmony broken by a few sore-heads and tories among us. Things have now reached a crisis, and all must take one side or the other: Negro suffrage and Civil Rights bill, or a return to the true theory of the Government as understood by the framers of that instrument—which is the chart and bulwark of our liberties. Several meetings have already been held, and more are in contemplation, to endorse the recent outrages of Congress; and disguise it as they may, the true issue in the October election in this State is, whether Thad. Stevens and Company or the President are to be sustained.

The true friends of the Executive policy will support Governor Worth—its opponents, headed, aided and abetted by Holden & Co., will support his opponents. The people are no longer to be deceived by assurances that Worth retards our admission, and that Logan, or whoever he may be, is on the straightest course that leads into it. Every vote cast against Governor Worth is a vote to cripple the President and the friends of the South, and of the Constitution at the North, and a direct and pointed invitation to the Radicals still further to humiliate our people, and to change our system of Government from the Republic Washington made it, to a lawless, centralized despotism.

There can be no neutrals now. It is Governor Worth and President Johnson's just and magnanimous policy, or negro equality and suffrage. The election of Worth by a large majority is not enough; it must, for our safety and honor, be almost unanimous; and we predict that his opponent will not receive 5,000 votes in the whole State. Not only must the Governor's election be looked to, but a vigilant eye must be had to the complexion of the Legislature. The true men must not only bring out their strongest man, but must not be drawn off by side issues. The plan of the Radicals is first to divide and then conquer. We must have a conservative Legislature, or more "fantastic tricks" than disgraced us last winter will be successfully carried out. Then let us organize, and by returning proper men show to the President that we approve and appreciate his noble actions.—Charlotte Times.

GENERAL NEWS.

Forney's Chronicle prints a three column editorial defence of Judge Advocate General Holt, against the charge that the evidence adduced by the Judge Advocate General, tending to implicate Mr. Davis in the assassination plot, was all of a perjured character, procured by the Judge Advocate General through one Sanford Conover. The Chronicle's defence is merely an admission of the truth of these charges, which is substantiated by affidavits of the Judge Advocate General, incorporated in the article.—The attempt, however, is made to show that Connover imposed on the Bureau of military justice and deceived them by his statements.—For their gullibility they plead the endorsement of Connover by the New York Tribune, in the service of which journal he had formerly been engaged as special correspondent. This attempted defence amounts simply to a withdrawal of all charges against Mr. Davis for complicity in the assassination plot, and leaves the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives with no standing place.

The radicals of Knox county, Me., having a convention in full blast recently, invited General Tilson, the present Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia, to ventilate his sentiments, having no doubt that he would do as the other orators did, defend Congress and denounce President Johnson. The General made his speech, but it fell like a wet blanket upon the party present, the tenor of it being the very opposite of what they expected. They listened in silence, or attempted to corner the speaker by interrogations, but they failed, and at the end of the speech quietly separated, without the usual cheers and demonstrations.

A heavy storm visited the neighborhood of Cincinnati on Tuesday. A creek was so swollen that thirty tenement houses were swept away; the occupants barely escaped. Longworth's celebrated wine cellars were overflowed, three tanneries were destroyed, and a main culvert burst open. The total damage is roughly estimated at three or four hundred thousand dollars. Several persons were drowned in the country adjoining.

There appears to be no doubt that the radicals in Missouri are organizing a secret and armed conspiracy to carry the State against the conservatives, and to resist federal authority. Arms are being shipped in large quantities from the State arsenal in St. Louis to the interior by order of the Governor, and squads of negroes, armed, are drilling in every portion of the State. These preparations are all conducted with a secrecy that denotes conscious guilt.

A correspondent of a Cincinnati paper writes from Fort Abercrombie, Docotah Territory, under the impression that he has found Paradise. He sets forth the charms of that part of the world as follws: No income tax; no infernal revenue: no spies to see if you treat a friend on Sunday; no special police; no dog tax; no poll tax, school tax or bond fund. And, to end with, the Indians and half-breeds can't tell one greenback from another; so all our ones are tens.

Mrs. Proch, living in the mountains of East Tennessee, is perhaps the oldest woman in America. Her age is one hundred and twenty-one years. Although entirely blind, she is hale and hearty, and walks without assistance. Her mind is not impaired to any great extent, and many of the most stirring and thrilling events of the revolution are still fresh in her memory, and are discussed with an accuracy as to date and locality that is truly wonderful.

A gentleman and his wife, residing in Oswego, N. Y., are making a jaunt to New Orleans, in a little steamer expressly built for the purpose. It is twenty-five feet in length and six feet wide. In the middle of the vessel is carried a neat little steam engine, by which the craft is driven on the propeller principle. She had touched at St. Louis, at last accounts.

The State and Congressional election in Maine will take place on the 10th of September. Although they do not claim much of a prospect, the Democrats are displaying more than their usual energy.

DIED,

On Wednesday night, August 22nd. of bilious congestive fever, at the residence of her father, Benjamin Patrick, Esq., near Washington, N. C., MRS. SARAH H. BARBER, wife of Rev. S. S. Barber, aged 28 years, 11 months, and 2 days.

On Tuesday, the 17th. of July, 1866, at his residence, in Hyde county, Jos. BLOUNT HODGES, in the 84th. year of his age.

A CARD.

IT is proposed by the Philanthropic Society of the University of North Carolina to collect information relative to her Alumni and Members who participated in the late war. She has concluded, (as the most effectual way,) to address a Card to the Public, asking its assistance in this most praiseworthy undertaking.

The information desired is to embrace the rank and command of the individual; if dead, how and where; if wounded, in what battle, and if severely or not and if resigned, whether from disability or not. Information is particularly requested in reference to the class of 1859-60, but an account of all classes is also wished.

The Society is convinced, unless a generous assistance is given her by the friends and relatives of those mentioned, that her attempt at compiling such material must be futile. She therefore earnestly requests each and every one, who is competent, and especially does she expect the hearty co-operation of her old and Honorary Members, to give the desired information, and at once, as half its value will be lost from delay in giving it.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 6, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Nichols, Gorman and Neathery, Publishers, have on hand, for sale, a number of copies of Governor Graham's Memorial Address on the life and character of the late Hon. Geo. E. Badger.

We take pleasure in inviting attention to the Card of Hull, Atkinson & Co., 258 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. Of our own personal knowledge, we can confidently recommend this as one of the most reliable firms in the country. We take occasion to repeat, what we have heretofore said, that the noble city of Baltimore is peculiarly entitled to Southern trade. If it were proper to allude to them, we could mention reasons why the firm of Hull, Atkinson & Co. have especial claims upon the regard and patronage of our people.

E. B. Spence, Agent, Merchant Tailor and Clothier, 1300 Main St., Richmond, makes an attractive announcement. We hope that our North Carolina dealers will give him a call.—He will be sure to please them.

J. J. Litchford will have another of his Salmagundi Auctions on Saturday.

Pulliam, Jones & Co. have freshly-corned Mullet and a lot of white corn.

SEE FIRST page for late news. A hearty laugh for our readers is provided on the fourth page.

THE GRAND CONCERT.—We are requested to announce that Mr. Wheat, assisted by some of the best amateur talent of the City, will give his grand concert to-morrow (Friday) night, at the Commons Hall. The Concert is to be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, for the benefit of the poor. One of Knabe's grand Pianos will be used on the occasion. We hope to see a crowded and appreciative audience. Further notice to-morrow.

A WORD TO THE GAS COMPANY.—We regret to be obliged to state that the bills of the Gas Company are becoming positively alarming. Numbers of persons have complained to us, that they used fewer burners, and burned Gas for a shorter time, the past month, than usual, yet their bills were larger than those of former months. There must be something wrong with the meters or something else. We beg the Company to investigate the matter, as we learn that several families have resolved to return to burning candles and kerosene rather than submit to the heavy charges. We should deplore deeply the loss of Gas. Hence we call the attention of the Company to the matter.

GOOD NEWS.—We presume that nineteen-twentieths of the people of Raleigh will be glad to learn that Adjt. General Campbell has been relieved from duty and leaves the State in a few days. Among the many Federal officers who have been here since the surrender, Gen. Schofield, Gen. Cox, Gen. Ruger, Gen. Ames, Gen. Palmer, Col. Whittlesey, Col. Boyd, Maj. Walcott, Col. Hamilton, Col. Carr, Lt. Col. Stubbs, Maj. Mansfield, Maj. Myrick, and others, whose names do not occur to us,—we have hardly heard any of them spoken of as otherwise than polite and considerate of the feelings of our people.—Whatever may have been their political views, when in intercourse with our people they have at least foreborne such expressions as were offensive to gentlemen and ladies. On this account, they have been respected in their several positions. We regret that it is our duty to say, that Bt. Brig. Gen. Campbell has not been so esteemed by our people. His bitterness of spirit and deadly hostility to the South have been manifested on all occasions. The verdant popinjay, Col. Granger, and the demure, sour, bitter Adjt. Gen. Campbell, hated Raleigh and the Raleigh people, and they may be sure there is no love lost. The stock of Radical hostility and bitterness at the North will perceptibly rise, when Gen. Campbell gets back and uncorks his vials.

NEW STATE BONDS.—Under the act of the last General Assembly, the Public Treasurer, K. P. Battle, Esq., up to the present time, has redeemed old State Sixes, and the interest on them, by the issue of new Bonds to the amount of $1,241,600. This has required immense clerical labor and calculation, but our indefatigable Treasurer, and his equally indefatigable clerk, Mr. D. A. Bain, have rendered the service cheerfully, though it has sometimes required from twelve to fourteen hours close work, during the oppressive hot weather we have had.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., will address the people of Raleigh, at the Court House, on Saturday evening, at 7½ o'clock, upon "The present financial condition and future prospects of the State."

DENTAL CONVENTION.—The Dentists of N. Carolina met in Greensboro, according to appointment, on yesterday, and organized an Association,—the purpose being to elevate the standard of dental education and practice in North Carolina.

The following are the officers elect for the ensuing year:

The meetings of the Association are to be Annual and semi-Annual.

The first semi-Annual meeting will be held in Raleigh, the 1st. Wednesday in December next.

RALEIGH AND GASTON R. R. STOCK.—The Stock of this popular Road sold, a few days ago, at $75 per share. This is capital for the times.

KITTRELL'S SPRINGS COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—This flourishing institution opens its fall session under promising auspices. About 130 students have already entered, and the capacity of the institution (150 boarding pupils) will be full in a few weeks. Additions will be made to the buildings, by which 200 can be accommodated next session. Strange as it may appear in these times of pinching poverty and scarcity of money, all our female schools are doing admirably. This augurs well for the future intelligence of the State. The male schools and Colleges are not doing quite so well, but much better than was anticipated.

DRIED FRUIT CROP.—It is estimated that the crop of dried Apples, Blackberries, and other fruit, which will be shipped from North Carolina, the present season, will amount to more than 1,000,000 pounds, worth at the North over $300,000. At High Point Depot alone, $75,000 worth of dried blackberries have already been shipped.

A bushel of ripe blackberries will make five pounds of dried fruit. A woman or boy can easily gather 2 bushels per day, which would be 10 pounds dried, and which are now worth in New York $2,80, or 28 cts per lb,—really higher than raisins.

RICHMOND DESPERADOES LYNCHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.—We learn that Granville Montelle, the notorious Richmond desperado and horse thief, was arrested, with five others, a few days since, in North Carolina, for horse stealing, and that the whole party were hung by the people of the county in which they had been committing depredations, five hours after their arrest. The others of the party are said to be from Richmond, (supposed to be Doll, Leber and Fick.) These, with Montelle, took supper at the house of W. Coots, near camp Jackson, two weeks ago, Saturday night, and went in the direction of North Carolina when they left the city.—Richmond Examiner.

[This is news to us. There is probably not a word of truth in the story. Our people are not in the habit of taking the law into their own hands.]

A BEAUTIFUL FARM.—We were on the farm of Mr. Joseph Garrett, in Edgecombe county, a few days ago, and it did our heart good to view it. Reader, imagine nine hundred acres of cotton blooming and opening on one farm! Dr. Garrett cannot, we think, make less than four hundred bales of nice, white cotton, and he is only one among a thousand in North Carolina who will make large crops. The merchants of Norfolk, Petersburg and Baltimore may look out this fall. They will have something to do.—Weldon Star.

Washington Items.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S VISIT SOUTH.

Prior to his leaving the Capital on his northern tour, it has been ascertained that the President expressed a strong desire to visit the leading southern cities, and, if it is at all practicable, the trip will be made early in the ensuing year. Meanwhile it is not unlikely that he may make a tour of Virginia and North Carolina soon after his return from his visit to Chicago.—Cor. Phil. Ledger.

HOW TO GAIN A MAJORITY IN A REGIMENT.

Captain Merrium, formerly belonging to one of the Maine regiments, writes to the President that he heartily endorses his policy, and asks for the majority of one of the new cavalry regiments to which General Charles H. Howard has been appointed as major. The President endorses thereon, forwarding it to the Secretary of War, "Appoint Captain Merrium in place of General Howard."—N. Y. Tribune.

TROUBLES.—Some people are as careful with their troubles as mothers are of their babies; they cuddle them, and rock them, and hug them, and cry over them, and fly into a passion with you if you try to take them away from them; they want you to fret with them, and to help them to believe that they have been worse treated than anybody else. If they could, they would have a picture of their grief in a gold frame hung over the mantle-shelf for everybody to look at. And their grief makes them ordinarily selfish—they think more of their dear little grief in the basket and in the cradle than they do of all the world beside; and they say you are hard-hearted if you say "don't fret." "Ah! you don't understand me—you don't know me—you can't enter into my trials."—Such people as these are ridiculous in the extreme, and are hardly worthy of the name of men and women. Give us those light-hearted persons who, whatever may be their "troubles," bear about with them a cheerful countenance, take the ups and downs of the world easy, and who "Have a heart for every fate,

Whatever sky's above them."

Our Thursday Morning Dispatches.

The Brownlow Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5, P. M.

The Convention has been wrangling over the negro question, and adjourned until to-morrow without presentation of resolutions or address. The minority report favors negro suffrage.

A resolution was offered by Moss, of Virginia, to instruct Congress to provide for the enfranchisement of the blacks, which led to much confusion and great excitement during the debate. It was finally referred. The Northern and Southern Conventions fuse to-night, and will hold a mass meeting.

Speeches were made by Butler, Schenck, and Senator Wilson, bitterly denunciatory of the President.

The President's Tour,—Radical Insults.—The President Pours Hot Shot into Them.

JACKSON, Michigan, Sept. 5, P. M.

The President and party passed to-day. A reception was tendered him at Elyria, but it was marred by several insults. A black flag was displayed, and the band drawn up to receive the party played a dirge instead of a national air.

At Oberlin, no reception was tendered.

At Fremont, a very enthusiastic demonstration took place.

At Toledo, the Radicals marred the proceedings by insulting interruptions, but, with these exceptions, the affair passed off well.

A great crowd assembled at Detroit, where Gen. Grant received the party in person. The crowd was so overpowering that the arrangements for a procession could not be effectually carried out. The President's speech at Detroit is one of the most remarkable delivered by him. A person in the crowd insultingly alluded to the salary paid the President, who, thus interrupted, addressed the intruder as one of the radical persons who had been barking at him for eight months past, and, taking up the allusion to salary as his text, he poured ridicule into the radical Congress, which he called the Congress that doubled their own pay, and gave the maimed soldiers of the army a meagre pittance of fifty dollars bounty for their services.

Secretary Seward, in his speech, alluded to the efforts being made to separate General Grant and the President, characterizing them as futile.

New countries have wants and habits peculiar to themselves. In our widely extended and sparsely settled territory, medicines ready prepared are more employed, and are in fact a greater necessity than in the old countries. Dr. Ayer's preparations have given the public greater confidence in this class of remedies than had ever been felt before. Physicians instead of discarding them, really favor the use of such ready at hand antidotes for disease, when they can be depended on. And we wish our readers to know that in publishing J. C. Ayer & Co.'s advertisement, or any others of like reliable character, we think we are furnishing them as useful information as any with which we can fill our columns.—[Louisville Courier.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL.—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

HOW SUT LOVEGOOD EXPLODED.

HIS EXPERIENCE WITH SODA POWDERS.

Sut related this story thus: "George, did you ever see Sicily Burnes? Her dad lives at the Ratail Snaik Springs, nigh to the Georgy line."

"Yes, a very handsome girl."

"Handsome! that word don't kiver the case; it sounds like callin' good whiskey water, when you are at Big Springs and the still-house ten miles off, an hit a rainin' an yer flask only half full. She shows among wimen like a sunflower as compared to dog fenell and smart weed to jimsin. But thar aint no use tryin' to describe her. Couldn't crawl thru a whiskey barrel with both heads stove out, if it wur hilt sturdy fur her, and good foot holt at that. She wais just two hundred and twenty-six pounds, and stands sixteen hands high. She never got in a arm chair in her life, and you can lock the top uv a churn ur a big dog collar round her waist. I've seed her jump over the top uv a split bottom cheer and never show her ankle or ketch her dress onto it. She cerried devil enuf about her to fill a four hors wagin bed, with a skin as white as the inside ov a frogstool, cheeks and lips as red as a pearche's gills in dogwood blossom time; and sich a smile! Oh, I be drafted ef its eny use talkin. That gal cud make me murder old Bishop Soul hisself, or kill mom, not to speak uv dad, ef she jist hinted that she wonted sich a thing dun."

"Well to tell it all at onst, she war a gal all over, from the pint uv her toe nails tu the longest har on the highest knob uv her head—gal all the time, everywhere—and that uv the extinctest kind. Ov corse I leaned up to her as close as I dar tu, an in spite ov long legs, appetite for whiskey, my shurt scrape, and dad's satin hoss, she sorter leaned up to me, and I wus beginnin tu think I war the greatest an comfortablest man on yeath, not exceptin ole Buck or Brigham Young, with all his rad cullered, wrinkled wimmin, cradels full uv babies, and big Salt Lake thrown in. Well, wun day a cussed deceiven, palaverin, stinkin Yankee ped'lar, all jack-knife an jaw, cum to ole man Burnes, with a load of apple parins, callicker, ribbins, jawsharps an sody powders. Now, mind, I'd never hearn ov that truck afore, and I be durned ef I don't want it to be the last—wus nor rifle powder—wus nor percussion—three times as smart and hurts wus, heap wus. Durn him. Durn all Yankee pedlars, and durn their principils and practisis, I say. I wish I had all the sody powders they ever made in his cussed paunch, an a slow match fixed tu him, and I had a chunk ov fire, the feller whot found a piece ov him big enuff to feed a cockroach, ought to be King ov the Sultan's harem a thousand years for his luck. They aint human no how. The mint at Filadelfy is thar heaven; they think their God eats half dimes fur breakfast, hashes the levins for dinner, an swallows a cent on a dried appil for supper, sets on a crib full uv half dollars, and measured men like money by count. They aint one ov them got a soul but what cud dance a jig in a kabbage seed, and leave room for the fiddler."

"Well, Sicily bought a tin box ov the sody from him, and hid it away from her folks a savin it for me. I happened to pass next day, ov course I stopped to enjoy a look at the tempter, and she wur mighty lovin to me, put one arm round my neck an tuther one whar the cirsingle goes round a hoss, tuck the inturn on me with her lett fut, and gin me a kiss. Says she:

Sutty, love; love, I've got somethin for ye, a new sensation"—and I believed it, fur I begun to feel it already. My toes felt like little miners wur a nibblin at em—a cold streak a runnin up an down my back like a lizard with a turkey hen arter him in settin time; my heart felt hot and onsatisfied like, and then I'd cut old Soul's throat, ef she had hinted at needsisity fur such an operashun. Then she poured ten or twelve blue papers ov the sody inter a big tumbler, and about the same number ov white wuns inter tuther tumbler, and put ni onto a pint of water on both of them, and stirred em both up with a kase nife, looking as solemn as a ole jackass in a snow storm when all the fodder's gin out. She hilt wun while she told me to drink tuther. I swallowed it at wun run—tasted salty like, I thought it wur part of the senshasun. But I wur mistaken, all ov the cussed senshasun wur to cum, an it wornt long at it, hoss, you'd believe me. Then she gin me tother tumbler, an I sent it after the last race hoss t ishion.

"In about wun moment an a half I thot I had swallowed a thrashing machine in full blast ur a couple ov bull dogs, and they had sot inter fight in. I seed that I wur cotched agin—same family dispersition to make cussed fools ov them every chance—so I broke for my hoss. I stole a look back, and thar Sicily lay on her back in the porch a screamin with laffin, her heels up in the air a kickin ov them together, like she wur a tryin to kick her slippers off.—But had no time to look then, and thar wur a road ov foam from the hous to the hoss two feet wide and four inches deep—looked like it had been a snowin—poppin, an a hissin, and a bilin, like a tub ov hot soap suds. I had gethered a cherrytree lim as I run, an I hit a straddle ov my hoss, a whipin an a kickin like mad. This, with the skeery noises I made (fur I wur a whistlin, an a hissin, an a splutterin, outer mouth, nose an eyes, like a steam engine) sot him a rarin an covortin like he wur out ov his senses. Well he went. The foam rolled, an the ole black hoss flew. He jist mizzled—skeered ni tu death, and so wur I. So we agreed on the pint av the greatest distance in the smallest time.

"I aimed for Doctor Goodman's at the Hiwasses Copper Mines, tu git somethin to stop the explosion in my inards. I met a sercute rider on his travils toward a fried chicken an a hat full ov ball biskits. As I cum a tarin along he liilt up his hands like he wanted to pray fur me, but as I preferred physic to prayer, I jest rolled along. He tuck a skeer as I cum ni on to him, his faith gin out, an he dodged hoss, saddulbags an overcoat inter a thicket jist like you've seed a tertil take water ofen a log when a tarrin big steamboat cums along. As he passed ole man Burns', Sicily hailed him, an axed if he'd met anybody a gwine in a hurry up the road. The poor man thot perhaps he did an perhaps he didn't, but he'd seed a site, uv a speck, uv a ghost of old Belzebub himself, or a commit, he didn't exackly know which, but taking all things together an the short time he'd had for preparation, he thot he met a long legged shakin Quaker a fleein from the wrath tu kum, on a black an white spotted hoss a whippin ov him with a big brush, and he had a white beard what cum from ni on tu his eyes tu the pummel ov his saddil, and then forked and went to his knees, and then sumtimes drapped to the ground in bunches as big as a crow's nest and hearn a sound like the rushin uv mity waters, and he wur mitely exercised about it enyhow.—Well, I guess he wur, an so wur his fat hoss, an ole blacksmith wust exercised ov all uv em wur I, myself. Now, George, all this beard an spots on the hoss, an steam, an fire, and snow, an wire tails, is ouddacious humbug. It all cum onten my inwards droppin out ov my mouth without any vomitin ur effort, an ef it hadn't I'd busted inter inore pieces than thar is aigs in a big catfish. The Lovegoods are are all confounded fools, an dad ain't the wust uv em."

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unsurpassed facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesaler, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery ext.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.
